What is the “Clare Public Participation Network” (PPN)

The Clare Public Participation Network is an organisation that was set up to make sure that community groups have a chance to discuss and be consulted in the decisions that Clare County Council are making. The PPN will be the main way that your council connects with groups active in the county. Whenever the local authority needs people to participate in consultations or sit on the committees that decide policy it will call on the PPN to select them by holding elections. It does not cost anything to register with the PPN and we encourage all eligible voluntary, community and environmental groups to register. The PPN has a group called a secretariat who manage its activities at County level. The members of this group are independent of the County Council and are elected by the members of the PPN. Your group will have a vote and will be able to nominate candidates for these and other positions once it has been registered with the PPN for a period of three months.
